Luz Saúde informs that, on last February 24, protocols were concluded with a view to develop a Campus of the Faculty of Health Sciences of the Portuguese Catholic University in Cascais and also to the creation of the first private Medicine course in Portugal.

These protocols formalize the partnership between the four institutions responsible for the creation of the new Faculty of Health Sciences: Cascais Municipal Council, Luz Saúde, the Portuguese Catholic University and the University of Maastricht.

Within this project, Luz Saúde will install a new hospital where once the Hospital de Castro Guimarães was located, in Cascais, to, among other purposes, provide support to medical training in the Medicine course mentioned.
